I love Micah's comment - why not just simply turn it into a bullet for section 4?

- Address hurdles associated with access to resources on public lands for the rural communities that rely on cattle grazing, timber harvests, mining and other multiple uses.

Micah's comment is below. Kate do you or someone in BLM want to take a crack at this? Otherwise I am not sure we can get something together before the 3 pm deadline.

I would add one or two lines about addressing the hurdles associated with public lands and the rural communities that live off of them. Removing the barriers and embracing multiple use. It'll go a long way for ranchers, timber, mining towns that rely on access to public land resources.

I'd agree with KM's suggestion about Coast Guard. My only input.
